

2016 Rossi-Wallace Zinfandel

Napa Valley

Well, is it California Zinfandel or Tuscan Sangiovese? A very pretty, bright garnet color does not reveal its' source. Even aromas and flavor delude. Let's face it ... it's both old California and Tuscan combined with its' racy-gamy aromas and flavors ... and a lot of fun to drink! This is what folks who love red wine like to put on the table often.

- Blend – 80% Chiles Valley Zinfandel (Nichelini Vineyard)
20% Atlas Peak Sangiovese (Antinori Vineyard)
- Aged one year in 1 year old Francois Ferrer Burgundy Barrels
- Left sur lees through August 22, 2017
- Bottled August 23, 2017 – 5 Barrels – 122 cases, 750ml produced

Analysis at Bottling:

Date picked	September 23, 2016
Brix at picking	25.7
Alcohol (at bottling)	14.9%
Total Acid	0.66 g/100ml
VA	0.041 g/100ml
pH	3.86
Glucose/Fructose	0.05 g/100ml
Malolactic	Negative